i&tk July THE EXECUTION OF RACKET Authorities as for i6th July
There seems to have been a recognised etiquette in quartering Prisoners who annoyed the crowd, or the authorities, were quartered living , but as a. mark of favour those who behaved in a markedly courageous and seemly manner (e g by praying for the Queen or expressing genuine repentance) were allowed to hang until they were dead or at least insensible

z^tA July COPPINGER DIES IN PRISON Authorities as for r6th July
For the connection of Hacket and his companions with the Puritan leaders see A F Scott Pearson, Thomas Cartwnght and Elizabethan Puritanism, 1925

^nd August SIR ROBERT CECIL A PRIVY COUNCILLOR A PC, xxi 358

ird August A SUSPECTED PORTUGUESE SPD, ccxxiv 123 See also 23rd January, 1594

7/£ August AN ASSAULT IN ST PETER'S, WESTMINSTER Middlesex Sessions Rolls, i 194

A BUILDING ALLOWED IN BLACKFRIARS A P C, xxi 367

i^th August ANDRADA'S DECLARATIONS S P Dom , ccxxxix 135 See 24th January, 1594, the case of Dr Lopez Don Antonio was the pretender to the throne of Portugal To carry the war into the enemy's country, Drake and Norris, joined by the Earl of Essex, led a great expedition in 1589 to Portugal But though the English soldiers showed great valour, the voyage was a signal disaster The Portuguese lacked enthusiasm, and out of 11,500 men 6000 died, mostly from disease Since then Don Antonio had remained an unwelcome pensioner in England See pages 115, 278, 280

20*£ August A QUACK FIGURE CASTER A P C, 3x1 409

zist August THE QUEEN ON PROGRESS The Honourable Entertainment gwen to the Queen's Majesty in Progress at Cowdray in Sussex by the Right Honourable the Lord Montacute, 1591 , modern editions m Nichols* Progresses of Queen Ehxabeth, vol u , and The Works of John Lyly, edited by R W Bond, 1902, who believes that these entertainments are of Lyly's devising , the evidence does not seem strong Both this pamphlet and the account of the entertainment at Elvetham (see 24th September) went into further editions

zznd August THE BORDEAUX WENE FLEET TO BE STAYED A P C, xxi 413

%th August MR THOMAS CAVENDISH'S EXPEDITION Hakluyt, vui 289

3irf August RUMOURS S P Dom , ccxxxix 159.

yd September ILLEGAL BUILDING IN LONDON A P C, xra 422

qtk September THE EARL OF ESSEX IN FRANCE Siege of Rouen, p 13 et seq

6th September THE QUEEN DISCONTENTED AT THE ILL SUCCESS IN FRANCE Unton Correspondence, 59

lotfr September NEWS FROM FRANCE Siege of Rouen, p 21 et seq

i-zth September MR WALTER DEVEREUX SLAIN. Memoirs of Robert Gary, King's Classics, 1905, p 14